Born in Paris, Robert G. Schmidt studied at the Fine Arts in Julian's Academy. This colorist attracts by an original atmosphere of dreaming and cheerfulness. He is member of all parisian Art Galleries and was President of «Comparaisons» from 1996 to 2002.

His favorite subjects are: Paris districts, little places and villages from Loire valley, the French Riviera, Brittany's sea side and sometimes still lives with a violin or fruits dish where we always find a light halo. His paintings travel world-wide : Europe, Asia, Africa, the United States, South Sea Islands and kept in museums and publics collections.

For many years now, Robert G. Schmidt has been one of the most outstanding painters of his generation.

A new monograph in French, in English and in Japanese with over a 100 reproductions is on sale at the gallery.
